

SELBY BOBCAT ZINFANDEL SONOMA COUNTY 2007

“Bobcat Zinfandel is made in a non-traditional voluptuous winemaking style. The grapes are picked at maximum sugar levels to attain the most extreme concentration possible. Rich flavors, a hint of sweetness and high alcohol content makes this the most intense wine from Selby. Are you surprised it is the most popular? Savor the flavor of the elusive Bobcat before he is gone for another year.”

-Susie Selby

TASTING NOTES:

This is the most famous and popular of the wines made by Selby. Rich and bold dark cherry fruit with hints of pepper, anise and nutmeg.

OTHER NOTES:

This wine is produced from a premium hillside vineyard in Sonoma County. Individual bunches were selected for the most concentrated fruit and flavors. Fermented in small lots and aged in our finest oak barrels, the elusive bobcat frequents only the remote hillside vineyards that Selby prizes for our rare, hand-crafted Zinfandel.
